The Boston University Ballroom Dance Beginners' Competition will offer three individual events: Cha Cha, Swing, and Salsa. Competitors are not required to compete in all three events. Each dance will be judged separately. Six finalists will be selected for each dance.

Competitors placing in the top six in any individual dance will qualify for the three-dance Grand Final. The Grand Final will consist of all three dances (Cha Cha, Swing, Salsa). Competitors must participate in all three dances in order to be eligible for placement in the Grand Final. Dancers competing in the Grand Final will dance in preliminary rounds and will be placed first through sixth place in the final round. Competitors placing first through sixth in the Grand Final will be awarded gifts from Boston University Ballroom Dance. The over all winner of the three-dance Grand Final will also be awarded $100.

No dance experience is necessary to participate in BUBD Beginners' Competition. Those who have competed in Ballroom/Dancesport competitions prior to BUBDC Beginners' Competition are ineligible.

Competitors will be judged based on general dance appearance, poise, and charismatic interaction with their partner, as well as proficiency in each dance.

Return this form to Boston University Ballroom Dance by Thursday, September 25, 2003 with $5 registration fee per competitor. Late registration will be accepted on the morning of the competition with $7 registration fee.

By signing below, I affirm that I have not competed in any previous Ballroom/Dancesport competitions.
