

BIOGRAPHY: IAIN M. COCKBURN

Iain M. Cockburn is Professor of Finance and Economics and Everett W. Lord Distinguished Faculty Scholar in the School of Management at Boston University, where he teaches and performs research in the areas of business strategy, intellectual property, economics of innovation, and management of high technology companies.

Professor Cockburn graduated from the University of London in 1984, and completed his PhD in economics at Harvard University in 1990. Prior to coming to BU, he was the Van Dusen Professor of Business Administration in the Faculty of Commerce the University of British Columbia. He is a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He is a former Associate Editor of Management Science and Coeditor of the Journal of Economics and Management Strategy.

Professor Cockburn is published widely in leading journals in economics and management. Among his most highly cited papers are “Measuring Competence: Exploring Firm Effects in Pharmaceutical Research” in Strategic Management Journal, “Generics and New Goods in Pharmaceutical Price Indexes” in American Economic Review, “Racing to Invest? The Dynamics of Competition in Ethical Drug Discovery” in the Journal of Economics and Management Strategy, “Scale, Scope, and Spillovers: Determinants of Research Productivity in the Pharmaceutical Industry” in the RAND Journal of Economics, “Absorptive Capacity, Coauthoring Behavior, and the Organization of Research in Drug Discovery” in the Journal of Industrial Economics, and “The Changing Structure of the Pharmaceutical Industry” in Health Affairs.

School of Management
Boston University
595 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, MA 02215
(617) 353-3775

email:cockburn@bu.edu
FAX: (815) 550-2353

