

Speaking Engagements

Professor Kotlikoff speaks to hundreds of U.S. and foreign businesses and government groups about economic and policy issues, both domestic and foreign. His talks cover a very wide range of micro and macro topics. Examples include

| | |
|---|---|
| Is the U.S. Bankrupt? | The Coming Generational Storm |
| Is Conventional Financial Advice All Wrong? | Why Interest Rates are Heading North |
| The Healthcare Fix | Will the U.S. Hyperinflate? |
| Worldwide Economic Growth | Economic Magic |
| Fixing the World Bank | The Demographic Sword of Damocles |
| Iraq -- Plan B | Is America's Middle Class Disappearing? |
| Getting Argentina Back to the Future | Boomers' Mega-Inheritance, Myth or Reality? |
| Pension Reform in Chile | Remaking Social Security from Scratch |
| Whither the Euro? | The New New Deal |
| Can China Keep Growing? | Financial Advice or Malpractice? |
| Economics' Revolution in Financial Planning | Why America Doesn't Save |
| Are Americans Saving Enough? | Does It Pay to Save? |
| The Trade Deficit, What It Really Means? | Telecom's End Game -- Monopoly? |
| Spend Till The End | The Case for the FairTax |
| Does It Pay to Work? | Generational Accounting |
| Are Economists Smarter? | Intertemporal State Budgeting |
| China's Currency Reform – Is it Time? | The General Relativity of Fiscal Language |
| When Can I Retire? | The Great Pension Swindle |

To book Professor Kotlikoff, please contact him at 617 834-2148 or kotlikoff@bu.edu.