INDEX

VARIABLE ANNUITIES, VARIABLE INSURANCE AND SEPARATE ACCOUNTS

PART I: VARIABLE ANNUITIES AND VARIABLE INSURANCE

I. INTRODUCTION .................................................. 177

II. VARIABLE ANNUITIES ......................................... 182
   A. Variable Annuities and Conventional Annuities ........ 182
   B. Variable Annuities and Mutual Funds ................. 186
   C. Conventional Life Insurance ........................... 189
      1. Risk ............................................. 190
      2. Shift of Risk ................................. 190
      3. Distribution of Risk ......................... 192
      4. Protection ...................................... 193
   D. Conclusion ....................................... 194

III. Valic and United Decisions .............................. 195
   A. Variable Annuities Are Securities ..................... 195
   B. Investment and Insurance ........................... 196
   C. Insurance May Contain an Investment Component ..... 199
      1. Cash Surrender Value .......................... 199
      2. Endowment Policies ............................ 201
      3. Specialty Policies ............................ 201
   D. Application of Valic and United to Variable Insurance 201
      1. The Analytical Approach ....................... 202
         (a) The Risk .................................. 203
         (b) The Investment (Savings) Component ..... 204
      2. The Institutional Approach ..................... 208
   E. When Does the Need for Investor Protection Arise? ... 214
      1. Control of Investment .......................... 214
      2. Bearing the Investment Risk .................... 216

IV. THE CHARACTERISTICS OF AN EXEMPT VARIABLE LIFE INSURANCE POLICY .......................... 219
   A. The Amount of Investment Risk Borne by the Insured 220
      1. Minimum Fixed-Dollar Amount of Death Benefits 220
      2. No Minimum Fixed-Dollar Cash Surrender Value 220
   B. The Amount of Savings That the Variable Policy May Contain ........................................... 221
   C. How Much Risk and What Type of Risk Should Be Borne by the Insurance Company? .................. 222
   D. Stabilizing Fluctuations in Investment Performance .. 226
   E. The Policy Must Be Sold as an Insurance Policy, Not an Investment Contract .................... 227
   F. Conclusion ........................................... 229
PART II: SEPARATE ACCOUNTS

I. THE STATUS OF AN ISSUER OF VARIABLE ANNUITIES UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940 .......................... 231
   A. The Separate Account as an Issuer ...................... 231
   B. The Investment Company Amendments Act of 1970 .... 234
   C. Second Thoughts and Some Later Adjustments ......... 237

II. THE NATURE OF A SEPARATE ACCOUNT ....................... 247
   A. Definitions ........................................... 247
   B. The Definition of an Account .......................... 248
   C. Separate Balance Sheet ................................ 251

III. CREATION AND ORGANIZATION OF ACCOUNTS ............... 255
   A. Applicable Law ...................................... 255
   B. Method of Establishment ............................... 259
      1. State Law ........................................... 259
      2. 1940 Act ........................................... 261
         (a) Form of Organization .......................... 261
         (b) Registration .................................. 263
   C. Institutionalization of the Account: The Rules and Regulations .......................................... 264
   D. Qualifications of Issuers Under the 1940 Act and State
      Laws .................................................. 268
   E. Which Is the Investment Company? ...................... 270
   G. Allocation of Liabilities for the Business of the Account
      1. Liability of the Insurance Company ................ 273
      2. Liability Under the Securities Acts ............... 278

IV. PURPOSES AND POWERS OF THE ACCOUNT ..................... 279
   A. Purposes ............................................. 279
   B. Powers: To Contract and Conduct an Investment
      Business .............................................. 281
   C. Capacity to Sue and Be Sued ........................... 282
      1. The Contract May Raise Federal and State Causes of Action ........................................... 283
      2. Prevailing Federal Law ............................ 284
      3. Cause of Action Based on a Federal Statute ....... 285
      4. Rule 17(b) ....................................... 286
      5. Cause of Action Based on State Law—In State
         Courts .............................................. 287
      6. Class Action in State Courts ...................... 289
      7. Class Action and Derivative Suits in Federal Courts
      8. Citizenship in Diversity Jurisdiction .............. 292

V. CAPITAL STRUCTURE: THE SECURITY ......................... 298
   A. Accumulation and Annuity Units ....................... 298
B. "The Insurance Company's Powers Regarding the Terms of the Account's Securities and Its Capital Structure" 296
C. "Voting Rights and Simple Capital Structure" 297
   1. General 297
   2. Different "Classes" of Interests and Exemptions 297
   3. Voting Rights 298
   4. Voting Rights Under State Laws 302
   5. Solicitation of Proxies 303
D. "Limitation on Transferability" 304
E. "Mandatory Conditions Under the 1940 Act" 305
   1. Redemption 305
   2. Periodic Payment Plans 306
   3. Exemption from the Redemption Requirement 308
   4. Load 310
   5. Payments 312
   6. Uniform Price 312
F. "Mandatory Conditions Under State Law" 316
G. "Disclosure and Prospectus" 316

VI. "Assets" 317
    A. "Source of Assets" 317
    B. "Protecting the Company's Assets" 318
    C. "Ownership of the Assets in the Account" 324
       1. General 324
       2. Rights of Equity Investors in the Investment Property 326
    D. "Insulation of the Account from Claims of the Insurance Company's Creditors" 332
       1. General 332
       2. Federal Law 332
       3. State Law Applicable to Separate Accounts 334
          (a) "The "Not-Chargeable" Provision" 334
          (b) "State Statutes Regulating Insolvency of Insurance Companies" 335
             (i) General 335
             (ii) Special Deposits 336
             (iii) Statutory Deposits 339
       4. Segregation of Assets 340
       5. Policy Considerations 342
    E. "Restrictions on Investments" 343

VII. "Control by Contractholders" 345
    A. "General" 345
B. Election of Directors .......................... 346
C. State Laws Providing Voting Powers .............. 347
D. State Laws Providing Management Powers ........ 348
E. Division of Power Between the Contractholders and the Board ....................... 350
F. Control over the Business of the Account .......... 352
G. Advisory and Underwriting Contracts Between the Account and the Insurance Company ........ 354
   1. General .................................. 354
   2. Legal Consequences on Termination or Non-Ratification of Advisory or Underwriting Contracts .... 355

VIII. The Board of Directors ......................... 359
   A. Establishment of a Board .................... 359
   B. Duties .................................. 360
       1. State Law ............................. 360
       2. The 1940 Act ........................... 363
           (a) Contractholders’ Private Right of Action .......................... 363
           (b) The Problem of Management Fees ............................... 364
   C. Indemnification of Directors and Officers ........ 370
   D. Prohibited Self-Dealings ..................... 370
   E. Exemptions ................................ 372

IX. Winding Up, Dissolution and Reorganization .......... 373
   A. General .................................. 373
   B. Applicability of the Bankruptcy Act .......... 374
   C. Application of the 1940 Act .................. 380

X. Applicability of the 1940 Act to Separate Accounts ........ 383
   A. Separate Accounts Funding Variable Annuities .................. 383
   B. Separate Accounts Funding Variable Insurance Policies .................. 385

XI. Conclusion .................................... 389
   A. Purpose and Philosophy ........................ 389
   B. Choice of Regulatory Agency .................. 390
   C. The Model Act ................................ 394
   D. Organizational Structure ....................... 394
   E. Applying and Adjusting the Provisions of the Investment Company Act ................. 396
       1. Qualification of Companies and Custody of Assets .......... 396
       2. Reorganizations and Dissolutions .................. 396
       3. Load .................................. 396
       4. Redemption ................................ 398
       5. Underwriting Contracts ....................... 398
       6. Investment Advisory Contracts .................. 399
       7. Liability ................................ 400
       8. Investments ............................. 400